

Law Development Centre

JOB OPPORTUNITY

The Law Development Centre (LDC) invites applications from qualified Ugandans to fill the post of Lecturer. Lecturers are required for both the main campus in Kampala and the Mbarara Campus.

Applications should be addressed to The Head-Human Resource and Administration, Law Development Center, P.O Box 7117 Kampala, to be hand delivered to the Law Development Centre Reception. Applicants should attach up-to-date Curriculum Vitae, certified copies of academic and other relevant documents.

Deadline for submission of applications is 29th June, 2018
at 5.00pm.

JOB TITLE:	LECTURER	SALARY SCALE: LS5
REPORTS TO:	HEAD -POSTGRADUATE LEGAL STUDIES AND LEGAL AID
PURPOSE OF THE JOB
To teach the prescribed subject and offer professional advice to students in the allocated subject(s).
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
1 Teaching the prescribed subject or subjects.
2 Setting and marking examinations.
3 Marking Individual Assessments.
4 Presiding over moots.
5 Invigilation of examinations.
6 Meeting with and advising students.
7 Supervising students during clerkship and writing clerkship reports.
8 Attending pre-teaching meetings
9 Any other relevant duties assigned to the employee by the immediate supervisor

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

- 1 A Bachelor of Law- LLB (Hon) degree.
- 2 Postgraduate Diploma in Legal Practice from Law Development Centre.
- 3 Masters in Law- LLM shall be an added advantage.
- 4 Must be an enrolled Advocate of the High Court of Uganda.
- 5 At least six (6) years' work experience as a private or public legal practitioner.

KEY COMPETENCIES

- i) The ability to conduct research and publish well researched materials.
- ii) Should be creative and innovative.
- iii) He/she should be a person of high integrity.
- iv) The ability to produce quality results within set deadlines.
- v) Effective communication and interpersonal relations skills.
- vi) He/she should be a team player.