

CALL FOR ARTICLES/PAPERS: LDC @50

Law Development Centre is a statutory body established by the Law Development Centre Act, Cap 132, 1970. In 2020, the Centre will be commemorating 50 years of existence under the theme; “LDC@50:celebrate the past, embrace the future.”

Law Development Centre is pleased to announce a call for articles or papers for its forthcoming LDC@50 Law Journal which will be published during the celebrations in 2020.

Interested authors are invited to submit articles or papers in the range of 3,000-6,000 words on the following legal or jurisprudential topics (but are not limited to the following broad areas for consideration) for publication in the Journal

- Land and Environment
- Constitutional Reforms and governance
- Company law and policy
- Women rights
- Health and the Law
- Public interest litigation
- Intellectual Property Law
- Human and Peoples' rights

The article must have a title page with a brief biography with the affiliation of the author (s) and an abstract of not more than 300 words.

*The deadline for submissions is Saturday, 15 February 2020.

Relevant articles must be submitted as word documents by sending an email to fnakachwa@ldc.ac.ug and copied to mkemigabo@ldc.ac.ug. Please indicate that the article is for consideration in the forthcoming issue of LDC@50 Scholarly Journal. Authors are required to use the OSCOLA Referencing Guide.